THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

REUBEN MARTINEZ, 346 Woodrow street, had the best lunch of his life Sunday and he didn't even eat a bite of it.

Martinez was just planning to go down to the garage next door at 342 Woodrow and help GEORGE BOERSTLER and EUGENE HARMON with some of their clean-up work.

Martinez' wife asked him to wait and have some lunch first, so he did.

A few minutes later an explosion rocked the building at 342 Woodrow.

Both men inside the garage died.

Home salesmen in Westlake were all in a dither this week.

A check arrived at the sales office signed MRS. JOE DIMAGGIO. They check post haste and found that the Joe Dimaggio in question who was to soon move to Westlake listed his occupation as sports.

That did it.

They were sure MARILYN M. would be in their midst in a few short days.

Further investigation revealed Mr. Dimaggio works for the sports department of a large downtown department store.

The vision faded.

MR. and MRS. ERNIE RIBERA (he's the track coach at Jeff high) are parents again for the second time.

The new member is THERESA MARIE, born May 16, weighing 6 lbs., 7 oz., at Kaiser Foundation hospital.

The old college spirit: MRS. FRANCES DILTZ sold 50 poppies Monday morning in Daly City for the American Legion Buddy Poppy drive.

It wasn't until she'd reached the half-a-hundred mark that she realized the Buddy Poppy drive doesn't start until this weekend.

Our prediction for all-around athlete of the year to be named at Jeff high's father-son banquet next week: WALLY HONEYWELL.

Any bets?

DUTCHESS, boxer thoroughbred belonging to MR. and MRS. J. W. PHILLIPS, 798 Bellevue, delivered her first pup at 2 a.m. Sunday. Four hours later, at 6 a.m., she had nine little critters beside her.

Not bad for the first try.

Some citizens are claiming "the tail wagged the dog" in the Jefferson High school district trustee election.

They point out that vote from the smaller communities such as Brisbane and the Coastside won for incumbents.

In the Daly City-Broadmoor-Colma area precincts the incumbents were beaten, the final tally showed.

These citizens in question claim the incumbents won in the outside areas because their names were first on the ballot.

DON MOSSI, former local baseball great, pulled off quite a stunt this week for his team, the Cleveland Indians—he beat 'em.

In an exhibition game with Indianapolis last weekend, Cleveland pounded unmercifully four of the opposition hitters in three innings. Indianapolis ran out of chockers, so asked if they could borrow Mossi.

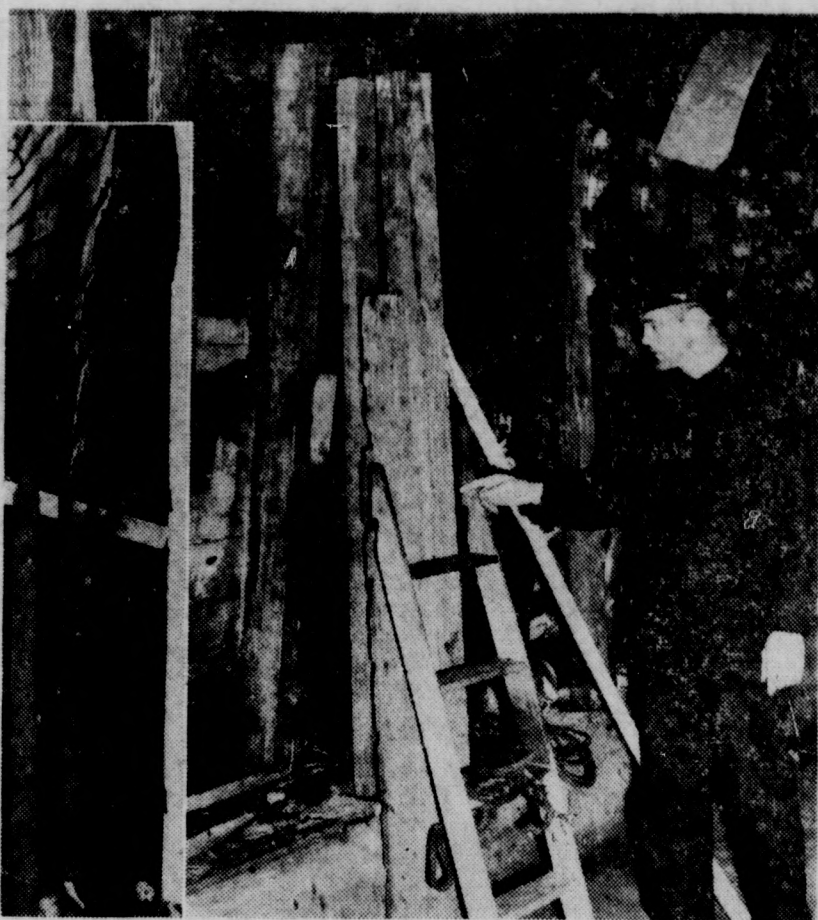

So Mossi comes in the fourth, handcuffs his teammates for the next six innings.

GARAGE PROVES "COFFIN" FOR TWO

EXTENT OF damage caused by Sunday's explosion in the garage at 342 Woodrow street is pointed out by Fireman Wayne Alexander. Alexander points to one of the timbers which were used to shore up the south side of the building to keep it from collapsing. Inset at left shows how blast, caused by explosion of gasoline fumes, pushed out side of garage nearly a foot at the point where damage was most severe. Two men died in the accident.

Incumbents Win In High School And JC Districts; Mullen, Lewkowitz, Kraus Take Jefferson Elementary District Jobs

Incumbents in two districts, and two candidates representing the League for Better Schools and one independent were elected to school board positions in the less than spectacular climax last Friday of the county's hottest trustee campaign.

Elected to the Jefferson Elementary school board for the regular term was Katherine R. Mullen. Joseph Lewkowitz and Henry Kraus were elected for the short terms.

Lyal Ingersoll and Raymond T. Whitney, incumbents in the Jefferson High school district, were re-elected.

The incumbents were re-elected in the San Mateo Junior college election. Robert A. Travis and J. Howard Watzler defeated J. E. Ralsey and William Lencioni in the race for two seats on the board of trustees. Travis polled 6284 votes and Watzler received 5941 votes.

Voting was considerably lighter than had been expected in some quarters. Fourteen candidates vied for the three elementary board seats, four for the two high school positions and four for the two college board positions.

In the high school district 2831 voters went to the polls and in the elementary district 1753 votes were cast.

BOY SCOUT FINANCE WEEK IS SCHEDULED

Next week will be Boy Scout finance week in Daly City, according to plans announced today by Fred N. Kruse of Westlake and Robert E. Hunter, campaign chairman.

Business division solicitors will meet for a kick-off breakfast at Our Lady of Perpetual Help school cafeteria Wednesday morning at 8 a.m. Assisting Hunter in this phase of the campaign are team captains Dan Harris, Police Chief Roland Petrovich, Ted Hopman, James Kennedy, Mrs. E. Cardellini, Mrs. Ann Tremoli, Fred Martin, Mrs. Pat Van Over, Ray Charlette, Tony Lucetti, Mrs. Irene Smith, James Mason, Elmer Kennedy, and others being chosen this week.

Denny Franco is serving as chairman for the Westlake business section. Others serving in special sections of the campaign include Judge Thomas Bocci, Jack Price, and Dan Andersen. About 50 volunteer workers are expected at Wednesday morning's breakfast, Hunter reports.

Local Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts are assisting the campaign by distributing window cards to Daly City and Westlake merchants.

Representatives of Daly City's packs and troops will contact neighbors in the house-to-house canvass, second phase of the campaign, to be held next Thursday evening between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m. Plans for the residential campaign were formulated at a meeting in the city council chambers last Tuesday evening, attended by Kruse, Hunter, representatives of the community's packs and troops, and district executive Maurice Powers. Residential solicitors will meet again next Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. at the council chambers to finalize plans for their part of the campaign and to receive report envelopes and receipt forms. These forms will identify properly accredited solicitors, Kruse said. Kruse also urged any

Council Fills Posts On DC Commissions

The city council, meeting in study session Monday night, filled two vacant positions on local commissions, recommended appointment of five persons to the newly-created parking authority, and set up a fire commission.

George Pingry, state highway official, of 8 Cliffside drive, was named to fill the post on the planning commission vacated by newly-elected councilman Sanford Vickers.

Selected to the library commission to fill the spot formerly held by Jack Marsicano was Lionel Farber of 159 Wilshire avenue, a biochemist.

The following persons were tentatively picked to man the fire commission, subject to approval at the next regular meeting: Emil Bertelli, 34 Bepler; Louis Lacombe, 49 Sheffield drive; and Robert Hunter, 437 Santa Barbara avenue.

The parking authority will also be formally appointed at the June 14 regular meet. Persons named for this body were: Harold W. Holman, 71 Cliffside drive; Ray Charette, 40 Hillcrest drive; Walt Rector, 331 Woodrow; Mrs. Sadie Cardellini, 6185 Mission street; and Ernest Matheney, 20 West Market.

The council voted to continue Edmund Cavnano on the recreation commission and Ed Whitney on the police commission. Their terms had expired.

CITIZENS HEAR ALL SIDES OF THE TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM AT SPECIAL MEETING IN CITY HALL LAST FRIDAY

Two outside bus lines, jitneys, or subsidization of the San Francisco Municipal railway to the tune of $40,000 a year.

That's the choice the city council had laid before them last Friday night at a transportation meeting in the City Hall attended by nearly 100 people.

Vernon Anderson, representing the muni railway, reiterated an edict laid down earlier by San Francisco that Daly City has less than 30 days in which to decide whether they will absorb the $40,000 annual loss or find some new mode of transportation.

Reviews Deficit
Anderson reviewed deficit of the two muni buses operating locally. The No. 76, which serves Broadmoor and Westlake, has an annual operating loss of $40,000. Anderson said, while the No. 56, cemeteries line, goes in the hole $20,000 every year.

Only concession the muni representative would make, other than subsidization, was use of a zone fare for the No. 56, which is now a transfer bus. Anderson explained that charging a 10-cent fare on the No. 56 might offset the $20,000 loss. The No. 76 would still have to be abandoned, however, unless the city undertook to subsidize the $40,000 loss.

Increase Not Answer
Anderson said he didn't think a fare increase on the No. 76, which is now a 15-cent charge, would supply enough revenue to offset the deficit.

Anderson, in summing up the situation, offered Daly City one of three solutions:

1. Retain present lines and fares and raise the annual loss through Daly City subsidy.
2. Install a zone fare on the No. 56 and subsidize the No. 76.
3. Install a zone fare on the No. 56 and discontinue municipal service on the No. 76 route.

In answer to a question by Councilman Michael De Bernardi whether the subsidy on the part of Daly City would be merely to maintain the present standard of service, Anderson said, "Yes, any extra service would have to be worked out."

Mayor Joseph Verducci queried Anderson as to whether profits from the No. 14 (Mission) line, a lucrative run, might not be made to accrue to other local lines.

"Develop This Idea"
In what appeared Daly City's only slim hope for maintaining the muni line here, Anderson said, "Although this question is difficult to answer from the floor, it might be well for Daly City to develop this idea."

In concluding his statement, Anderson made it clear that the muni would "under no conditions" continue to operate here if another company were brought in as a competitor.

A. R. Lynn, attorney representing the Peninsula Bus Lines, which now operate from South San Francisco to Holy Cross Cemetery and in the Brisbane-Bayshore area, offered the city transportation from the cemeteries to the "top of the hill" on Mission street.

Competition Out
Lynn, as did representatives of the two other transit firms seek-

AMERICAN LEGION POPPY SALES TO BEGIN TOMORROW

"Those who wear poppies in honor of the war dead on Poppy Day, also will be giving aid to living victims of America's wars — the disabled veterans and the needy children of veterans," according to Mrs. Margaret Kenney, Poppy Chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Poppy Day will be observed here and throughout most of the nation on Saturday and Sunday, May 29th and 30th, with volunteers from the Auxiliary distributing the little red flowers of remembrance on the streets and receiving contributions for the disabled and children.

"We of the American Legion Auxiliary believe that no child should be denied a fair start in life because of a father's sacrifices for his country," said Mrs. Kenney. "We are at work continually to bring aid to children of veterans who are in need of help, and with the rapidly increasing number of children, the demand for our services is rapidly expanding."

"More than one-half of all American children are now children of veterans. When a veteran dies or is incapacitated by his disabilities, there usually are little children who will suffer unless aid comes. Poppy Day contributions enable the Auxiliary to provide emergency aid until a more permanent solution to the family's problems can be found. Because of the increased need, we are hoping that

Flames Claim Pair In Gas Explosion

Funeral services were held Wednesday for two men who died this week in one of Daly City's most tragic accidents.

Last rites were conducted for George Boerstler, 29, and Eugene Harmon, 25, who died following the effects of burns suffered Sunday when gasoline fumes exploded in Boerstler's garage at 342 Woodrow street.

In the wake of the tragedy, which left Mrs. Dorothy Boerstler and her four children, Robert, 14 months, Ray, two, George, three, and Charles, 6, practically penniless, neighbors in the area have organized a fund drive to aid the family.

To date, a total of $901.55 has been collected.

Insurance Lapses
Mrs. Boerstler would have been provided for had her husband's life insurance policy, granting $6000 on accidental death, been paid up one day earlier.

The last payment on the insurance had fallen due on March 20, but 30 days from that time was allowed by the company to meet the amount. The policy elapsed on Saturday, just 24 hours prior to the fatal explosion.

Harmon's wife and two young boys are staying with relatives. Their residence was on Judson avenue in San Francisco.

Pioneer Daly City Woman Dies At 82

One of the earliest of Daly City's pioneer residents died early this week in her home here.

Mrs. Cora Krause, 82, of 5 Buminn Terrace, who moved here from Illinois 75 years ago, died Wednesday. She was the wife of the late Reinhold Krause, and mother of the late Mrs. Helen Whitehead.

Mrs. Krause is survived by three sons, Carl, Albert and Clarence.

Services for Mrs. Krause were held in the mortuary at Lasswells this morning at 11 a.m. Inurnment was in the Cypress Lawn Memorial park.

Wiesner received a fourth place in the Science and Mathematics division and Honeywell won fourth place in the Liberal arts divisions. Wiesner received $100 and Honeywell $250.

Finalists were chosen for awards in their high schools, then to represent their zones. Winners of the zone events were selected for cash awards at judgments in San Francisco.

JEFF HI TEACHERS SUBMIT WAGE SKED

An increase in maximum salary and addition in the number of salary steps is being sought by the Jefferson High School Teachers association, it was learned today.

According to a proposal submitted at the office of county superintendent of schools, James Tormey, the Jefferson teachers are asking that maximum salary be raised from $6800 to $7000.

Maximum salary, or "top class" applies only to instructors who have a bachelor of arts degree plus 60 units of post graduate study.

The proposal also called for increasing the number of salary steps from 12 to 14. At present, teachers receive an annual salary increase of $200 every year for 12 years.

The teachers seek to have this increase continue for two more years after the 12.

The proposed salary schedule requested no increase of the minimum salary of $4000.

The teachers recommended that five salary classes be maintained. Classes start with persons holding bachelor of arts and general secondary credentials. Top class includes persons with 60 units of post graduate work. Intermediate classes are ranked according to number of post graduate units. Difference in salary between each class is $100.

The request from the teachers must be voted upon by the school district before July 1, at which time the budget will be submitted.

less than four hours later at Junipero Serra hospital, after being rushed there by Daly City ambulance, as was Boerstler.

Boerstler survived until Monday morning. Attendants at the hospital said both men received third degree burns over 95 to 100 per cent of their flesh.

Extent of the violent explosion was such that firemen shored up the entire southern side of the garage with timbers to keep the remainder of the building from caving in. Building Inspector George Hopman said the structure was potentially dangerous and could collapse at any time.

The fire department said that, since the garage doors were closed, the gas fumes had built up in the building until the content was sufficient to be set off by the water heater pilot light.

Neighbors Respond

Neighbors in the area responded immediately to the plight of the Boerstler family, who had been residents of Daly City for four years.

Two of the children and Mrs. Boerstler are staying with the Martinez family, while the other two children are staying at the Pelletier residence.

The local fire and police departments were lauded for their immediate response to the scene, after Martinez had pulled the alarm.

Father Norman Allen, who administered last rites to the two men at bedside, also was cited for his ministrations at the scene following the accident.

Contributors

A list of those who have already contributed to the fund for the Boerstler family is as follows: Gene Donahue, Reuben Martinez, George Pelletier, Earl Clark, Gateway Chevrolet, Advanced Automatic Sales Co., Warren A. McDonald, Mrs. Hobbs, Bob Feder, Mrs. R. Thrift, Mrs. N. Cassel, Mrs. J. Bernal, Mrs. A. Buschne, Mrs. W. V. School Trustee Election

Mrs. Mullen led in five of the elementary school precincts, Kraus in three precincts and Lewkowitz in two.

In the high school race Ingersoll and Whitney carried all the coastside precincts, with the exception of Pedro, in addition to the Garden Village, Brisbane and Bayshore precincts. Herman Kalinin and William Ziegler carried the Crocker, Wilson, Jefferson, Stonyford drive and Westlake precincts.

In the elementary school district only 200 more persons voted than in the election in 1952 and only 300 more than voted in the election last year.

"Although the total number of votes cast did not exceed that of previous years as much as was anticipated, in view of the large number of candidates, there is no doubt more thought was given by the public to the qualifications a board member should have and more consideration was given to the many problems which face the school district," commented H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of the Jefferson elementary school district.

Voting Totals

Voting totals in the Jefferson Elementary district were:

Joseph Lewkowitz, 559; Katherine Mullen, 565; Henry Kraus, 409; Harold Brown, 361; Joseph P. Toboni Jr., 351; Casimir J. Norton, 349; Kevin Epidendio, 337; C. Henry Kempe, 317; Roy Arneson, 302; D. "The auxiliary wishes to apologize for the error made by one of the members earlier this week when some poppies were sold several days before the opening day of the sale," said Mrs. W. Rector, publicity chairman of the local auxiliary.

REGULAR PLANNING MEET IS POSTPONED

Regular meeting of the Daly City planning commission, scheduled for June 8, has been postponed a week because of the general election to be held on that date.

Fred Bertetta, chairman of the commission, said the meeting would be held June 15.

At that time George Pingry, newly-appointed commissioner, will be installed on the group.

Junior Membership Drive Underway For Station KQED

A junior sponsor membership drive for television station KQED is currently being carried on at the James Snell PTA.

The drive, which will last until June 4, is an attempt to enlist the aid of the whole family in working toward the debut of the educational television station, according to Mrs. John D. Mitchell, publicity director.

For a donation of $1 or more, juniors are entitled to wear a "junior's" pin. Pins are available in the King's Market.

Mrs. James Buchanan, radio and television director of the unit is the drive chairman. Assisting her are Mesdames Edward Liska, Grant Holman, Arthur Bullen, Joseph Elliott, John Mitchell, Jean Cain, P. H. Talbot and O. M. Warner.

According to Mrs. Mitchell further information may be obtained by phoning Mrs. Buchanan at PL 5-4125 or Mrs. Warner at PL 5-1995.

New driver comfort! New driving ease!

New Chevrolet Trucks...

do more work per day... more work per dollar!

You save time in traffic. New truck Hydra-Matic transmission gets you off to smooth, time-saving starts without shifting or clutching. Imagine how easy this makes driving in traffic and on delivery routes! It's optional at extra cost on 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton models.

You save time on the highway. New high-compression power gets you up to highway speeds from a standing start in less time, and saves you time on hills, too. You make trips faster—and the new Comfortmaster cab makes them seem shorter. It's got everything!

You save extra trips, too. That's because of the extra load space you get in the new Advance-Design bodies. New pickup bodies are deeper... new stake and platform bodies are wider and longer. Also, they're set lower to the ground for easier loading.

You save on operating costs. High-compression power saves you money! The "Thriftmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235" and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost), deliver greater horsepower plus increased operating economy.

You save with lower upkeep. New Chevrolet trucks are built stronger to last longer and save you money on maintenance. There are heavier axle shafts in two-ton models... bigger clutches in light- and heavy-duty models... stronger frames in all models.

And your savings start the day you buy. In fact, they start with the low price you pay—and they never stop. Chevrolet, you know, is America's lowest-priced line of trucks. And it's also the truck that has a traditionally high trade-in value.

Come in and see how much you're ahead with America's number one truck. You'll like the way we're talking business!

A LOW EBB IN ETHICS

Political activity in this area has reached a low ebb in ethics these past few weeks.

Opponents of certain incumbents running for county offices have labeled themselves nothing more than morons by their destruction of expensive campaign signs.

We believe, figuratively speaking, in a "no holds barred" attitude in elections, up to a certain point.

But this zealotism for campaigning should not reach the extent it has here recently.

Brazen destruction of political signs is a low stunt which should be attributed to probably what is a criminal mentality.

If these acts of destruction be sanctioned by candidates, then God save the public from these candidates.

However, if outside interests are guilty, then it would behoove candidates concerned to undertake a diligent search for the culprits.

Recent demonstrations of sign destruction hardly hurt the candidate whose material is involved.

But public opinion weighs heavily against whoever might be responsible for the uninhibited vandalism.

A TRAGIC COINCIDENCE

It was with tragic coincidence that two persons died this week during Daly City's "Clean-up" week.

One of the chief factors in holding Clean-up week is to rid homes of potential fire hazards, as the fire-department pointed out in promoting the drive.

The death of two persons here during Clean-up week only makes the fire department's warnings more salient.

The fire department, in helping sponsor Clean-up week, urges that potential hazards be removed from the home.

Among their many warnings is to avoid the use of gasoline as a cleaning fluid.

Probably no amount of editorializing could be as effective a warning as Sunday's incident in which two lives were lost because of the use of gasoline in the home.

Perhaps this will serve to add a little needed caution in some households and thereby avert a similar tragedy.

Recreation Dept. Extends Apologies

Dear Editor:

Due to an oversight in the printing of the program, the recognition of the grand work of the Daly City Garden Club in our recent Spring Festival was omitted. Bayshore PTA Receives Two Awards

Dear Editor:

If Mrs. John Pleskach has her head in the clouds these days, who can blame her? It isn't every day that a publicity chairman wins two awards for her work in compiling her publicity book.

To you, and to the staff of the Record, goes the sincere thanks of the entire Bayshore PTA. Only for your splendid cooperation in publishing all articles submitted to you. It is doubtful if these awards could have been won.

Again, our thanks for your able assistance, and it is our fond hope that this friendship may continue for years to come.

Hope this expresses just how we feel about OUR paper!

WEATHER HAMPER'S
SPRING FESTIVAL
OUTDOOR PROGRAM

Wind and fog hampered the success of the outdoor portion of the Spring Festival Sunday, but despite the weather a small audience attended to see the crowning of Festival Queen Charlotte Corvo and the show sponsored by the recreation department.

According to James Mason a large crowd assembled to observe the program but the cold weather soon resulted in the dispersment of the assembly.

Mason said that nearly 300 were present during the afternoon when the recreation department, in cooperation with the DeLeon Studio

LION

By Joseph Bell Jr.

By a direct appointment from the new district governor elect, Jud Holland, our president, Walter Rector has been chosen from four clubs as the new zone chairman, taking office July 1. The zone chairman shall be a member and the chairman of the district governor's advisory committee (committee composed of club presidents and secretaries) of his zone. The clubs comprising his zone are four, namely Daly City-Colma, Brisbane, South San Francisco and North Coastside.

The following Lions have been appointed by President Elect Joseph Bell Jr. to serve as chairmen for the following committees commencing July 1: Attendance, Hal Willis and Jack Price, membership, Elio Fontana and Mal Battye; finance, Nate Temkin; budget, Rudy Wolmuth; accountant, Harry Carusis; programs, Arnold Pannella; constitution and by-laws, John Putkey; Lions information, Ira Neville; united nations, H. The above committees are divided into three sections and are under the responsibility of the first, second and third vice presidents.

Lions clubs are non-political, non-sectarian service organizations composed of the community's leading business and professional men. Membership is by invitation only.

The purpose of a Lions club is more than good fellowship and club social life, important though these are. It is to recognize community needs and develop means of meeting them, either through its own effort or in cooperation with other agencies.

Lionism is an active and efficient medium for united community effort and enterprise. It is also an outstanding medium for national and world service, exerting tremendous influence for national welfare, international amity and peace, and human progress, socially, culturally and economically. The importance of Lions work in all these fields is widely recognized.

Safety News From Your Local Police

An unpaved highway dividing section, two feet or more wide, is now classified as a definite center barrier for separating opposing streams of traffic, under a new California law, even though it may not be delineated by curbs, lines or other distinctive outlining.

This means that it is unlawful to drive to the left of such an unpaved dividing section, or to drive along it or across it. It is unlawful to make a left turn or a U turn over such an unpaved dividing strip except through an opening plainly marked and designed for such cross-over.

BELATED CURES

Those who disregard health rules contract serious ailments and suddenly become desperately aware of the need for a cure. Drivers who disregard safety rules sooner or later become involved in serious accidents and then suddenly become desperately aware of the necessity of traffic safety rules and practices. Remember, that an ounce of accident prevention is worth a pound of safety cure.

COMMITTEES OFFER $500 REWARD AS POLITICAL SIGNS BATTERED, STOLEN

In the face of more than $250 damage to political signs of Louis B. Dematteis, Superior Court Judge, and Keith Sorenson, district attorney, the respective committees of the two candidates this week launched an all out drive to apprehend the vandals.

In a three-day period this week, two Sorenson signs at Junipero Serra boulevard and Knowles avenue were stolen, while three signs in Westlake proper have disappeared.

Monday night Dematteis signs located from Daly City to South San Francisco were torn apart.

According to Dan Casentini, chairman of the north-end Sorenson committee, they have leads on the culprits. "Daly City police are cooperating in the drive to apprehend these persons," Casentini said.

Casentini added that volunteer night patrols were being recruited from Dematteis and Sorenson committees.

The Dematteis group has offered a standing reward of $500 leading to the apprehension, conviction and prosecution of the person or persons responsible for wrecking Dematteis' signs.

A similar reward is being planned by the Sorenson committee.

COUNTY BOARD
OKS BUDGET
OF 14 MILLION

The Board of Supervisors today approved a preliminary budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 in the amount of $14,293,199, which is $351,323 less than last year's operating budget of $14,644,522.

In announcing the preliminary budget figure, Board Chairman Martin A. Poss stated that he and fellow board members have trimmed more than a million dollars from departmental requests and that unless something very unforeseen happens there will be no increase in the current tax rate of $1.34 per $100 assessed valuation.

"The budget approved by the Board is one based only on essentials," commented County Manager E. R. Stallings. "Many things which, although desirable, are not essential, have been eliminated. However, there will be no curtailment of county services to the public, although each department will be handling a heavier workload because of the population increase."

Mr. Poss indicated that he felt the Board had been quite generous in the appropriations for the improvement of Huddart Park, the Coyote Point Yacht Basin, and Coastside beaches. One large item omitted from the original requests was $30,000 set aside for interest and redemption on the Community Hospital bonds. This was possible because of the fact that the Board delayed the sale for a "very favorable" market and obtained a "very favorable" interest rate. District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson pointed out that the County was saved the fee usually paid attorneys for conduct of a bond sale, as he handled it himself this year "for the first time in history."

Poss pointed out that the County's bonded indebtedness is only $3,600,000 after selling the bonds for the new construction at Community Hospital. "Our capacity for bonding is about 22 or 23 million dollars, so we are on very sound financial ground," he added.

Public hearings will be held before the final budget is adopted. The Board instructed the Controller to prepare the preliminary budget for printing and the first public hearing will be around June 10 depending upon when the printing is completed.

LINGERIE VANISHES
AS PANTY THIEF
STRIKES HERE AGAIN

Westlake's panty thief has struck again.

This time it was at the home of Kathleen Grove, 24, of 61 Park Plaza drive, apt. 17.

The culprit hit sometime between 9 p.m. Monday and 8 a.m. Tuesday, taking sundry lingerie from the woman's clothes line.

Include in the "haul" were a slip, five pairs of undies and four bras.

It marked the second time in less than two weeks that Westlake ladies have been victimized by the panty marauder.

Over the past six months four such incidents have taken place.

Daly City police think the same man is responsible for all the thefts. It is believed he lives in the Westlake area. Inspector Dave Johnstone is heading the investigation.

GIRL SCOUT FUND
DRIVE TO START

A drive to raise money for the development of the Girl Scout camp site in Sonoma will get under way in the near future, according to Peter J. Markovich, chairman of the drive.

The camp, 76 acres, was purchased last year to serve the North County area Girl Scouts. It will be in year around operation and will be able to take care of 2100 youngsters.

The drive will be to collect $47,135, the estimated amount of expenditures for the next five years. The biggest portion of the money will be designated toward a swimming pool, Markovich said. The remaining money will be used to build 800 feet of road, a gate, tree removal, required easements, water system, disposal system, food service, refrigeration, benches and tables, unit centers and many incidentals, Markovich explained.

Ridgely Cummings Reports

One of the drawbacks of newspaper work is that practitioner tends to think in hackneyed terms. At the first faint hint of an idea the journalist pulls a cliché out of the air and drops it neatly in place. It's easier than thinking.

Thus I was sorely tempted to start out this essay by remarking that great minds run in the same channels. My excuse for this solecism was that a Los Angeles columnist named Matt Weinstock recently penned a paragraph on the power of publicity at the same time I was involved in deep thoughts on the same subject.

To refer to Matt's mind and my own as "great" seemed sufficient exaggeration to warrant use of the worn-out phrase in the guise of humor. But then I got to thinking about clichés and have now backed into my subject. Which, although not ideal, is one way of getting started.

Hollywood Craze

What I plan to discuss is a new book that is all the rage in Hollywood, or at least in that restricted portion of the movie capital in which I operate.

It's title is "The Build-Up Boys" and the author is Jeremy Kirk, a pen name reputed to hide the identity of a writer who knows the public relations racket from the inside.

Whoever is hiding behind the pseudonym of Jeremy Kirk is a disillusioned man. He recognizes the dangers that inhere to the public in the current practice of taking a nobody and quietly, cleverly, through ghost-written speeches and the manipulation of publicity media, turning him into a packaged product known and respected by millions.

That's what the book is about. It recounts the step by step process by which a bright young public relations man takes a nincompoop and builds him into a public figure.

The Build-up

The nincompoop is delivering milk when the PR man latches on to him. He is distinguished from other milkmen only by some inherited stock in the milk company and by an exceptional memory.

The PR man arranges for the milkman to speak at various company meetings. The PR man writes the speeches and the figurehead delivers them. Also he believes them. And since he never forgets a phrase, gradually he becomes convinced that the ideas originated with him.

Applause starts a chain reaction of growing self-confidence and stage presence in the milkman, who now becomes an executive. His aplomb impresses his listeners and he gets more opportunities.

The appetite of the stuffed shirt for applause increases in proportion to the amount he gets. As he waxes in wealth and power, he makes greater demands on his PR man. The behind the scenes manipulator connives and beats his brains for the ideas that will make headlines, and is hard put to keep the stuffed shirt satisfied.

Gradually the PR man sees he

My Mad
World

By Leonore Brewer

During the past months we have greatly enjoyed finding neighbors who are kind enough to express an interest in our column, but there is one attitude toward it and ourselves that we find quite prevalent: that there is something rare and exotic about the music or ballet lover; that we are a breed apart, with sensibilities so delicate that the average being can never hope to reach our sphere. Now that's just a lot of balderdash!

Someday we hope to do a column on how to introduce your child to music, and you're going to be surprised. But today isn't the day; today is the day to persuade the reluctant adult, with all his preconceived nonsensical notions on the subject, that the only prerequisite for entry into the world of music is the price of admission to the theatre, many times no more costly than a movie ticket.

Should you be in the mood to be persuaded, "Brigadoon" has opened the current Civic Light Opera season, and as a painless entrance to what I quite frankly consider a glorious world, it has just about everything.

Memory tells us that it was 1949 when it last played here, so you must be patient if we are a bit fuzzy on the details, but we do remember enough to recommend it wholeheartedly. It is light and tuneful and has easily followed melodies that you'll find yourself humming as you leave the theater.

LOCAL FAMILY
LOCATES EMPEROR
NORTON TREASURE

Dr. Quentin Bonser, 1687 Sweetwood drive, Colma, dug one hole in the Redwood Regional Park near Sequoia Point, Sunday, and returned home $1000 richer.

Dr. Bonser located the Emperor Norton treasure planted by a San Francisco newspaper as part of a promotion stunt.

The treasure hunter followed clues printed in the paper and with their help and the use of what Mrs. Bonser termed "the psychology of the whole thing," figured out the location of the buried $1000.

Bonser, 32, an assistant resident doctor at the University of California hospital and a graduate of the US Medical school has lived in Colma a year and a half. The Bonser, married nine years, have three children, Wayne, 6, Gordon, 4, and Patty Ann who is 11 months.

"I just didn't believe it," said Mrs. Bonser. "We followed the clues but there hadn't been any specific point indicated. We took the general clues and then thought of what we would feel was a good place if we were hiding the treasure. We figured out that the treasure was in the northern area the last time so it would be in the south this time. There is no poison oak near Sequoia Point, it is a good family spot, it was near a boundary, and there were four trees and no grass."

The Bonser had a picnic lunch at the spot on Saturday and returned at about 8 p.m. on Sunday to dig up the treasure. Bonser dug while the family waited in the car. The treasure chest was located in the first attempt, Mrs. Bonser said.

The family made an unsuccessful attempt to locate the Norton treasure in an earlier contest.

Red Poppy Honors
Dead By Helping
The Living Veterans

The red crepe paper poppy, replica of Flanders' Poppy, was officially adopted in 1921 as the memorial flower of the American Legion and the American Legion auxiliary. Through the years it has become the symbol of the dead, their memorial flower.

The red crepe paper poppy is hand made exclusively by hospitalized veterans of the World Wars and the Korean conflict. It is made of paper to give the veterans a minimum amount of work and income. In many cases the income derived from this source constitutes the only income of that hospitalized veteran.

Each year volunteer workers, members of the American Legion auxiliary, offer these poppies to the public, to be worn by them on Memorial Day so they may pay tribute to the Nation's honored war dead.

All contributions made by the public are used by the American Legion auxiliary exclusively for the welfare of needy veterans and their families' throughout the State of California.

has a Frankenstein on his hands. And when the stuffed shirt becomes a menace to the national welfare, the tiny remaining shreds of the PR man's self-respect cause him to rebel.

I was mulling about all this when I came across Matt Weinstock's thoughts on the same subject. Matt had exhumed a pertinent quote from "The Education of Henry Adams," published in 1918, back in the days when only a few of the build-up boys were active and public relations was not yet a recognized course in university curricula. The quote goes:

The Effect of Power

"The effect of power and publicity on all men is the aggravation of self, a sort of tumor that ends by killing the victim's sympathies; a diseased appetite, like a passion for drink or perverted tastes; one can scarcely use expressions too strong to describe the violence of egotism it stimulates."

That is real writing and if I were a different sort of man I might be tempted to indulge in a little envy of the long-dead Henry Adams. It takes me a lot more space to say approximately the same thing, but then I probably have more fun doing it than the reserved New Englander ever got out of his compositions.

For example, the inhibited Mr. Adams would never think of revealing the process by which a thought came up and bit him. I suffer from no such interdictions. I got my copy of "The Build-Up Boys" from Larry Levin, a Hollywood promoter of various ventures who is distinguished by his habit of smoking cigars the size of small baseball bats.

I ran into Larry on Vine street. He was mouthing one of his Havanaes and holding a book with a maroon cover showing the shadowy figure of a man carrying a brief case. After greetings were over I nodded at the book and asked if it were any good.

"Good?" exclaimed Larry. "It's great. As a writer it's right down your alley. Mean to say you haven't read it yet?"

I confessed I had seen it around and heard people talking about it but that it hadn't yet hit the second hand stores where I buy most of my books.

"Come on over to the library with me and you can get it now. It's overdue and I'm taking it back. I'll have to pay a fine but it was worth it. I kept it out so I could read it twice."

We strolled over to the white-walled literary temple on Ivar Street. Larry teased the coy librarian and introduced me to her while paying his fine.

Great Demand

The girl winked at me and Larry seemed a little disappointed when she acknowledged his introduction by saying I was one of her most devoted clients. She gave me the book and I noted it was copy number eleven, a strong indication of the readership demand.

I started the book in a booth in Coffee Dan's but there were too many acquaintances and too much conversation to get very far. That same evening I finished it, reading it through at a single sitting, for it is fast, spirited stuff.

That was a little over two weeks ago and I've been meaning to write about it ever since, with the result that I now owe a fine on it myself. It's a good thing public libraries adopted the penalty system as an antidote to procrastination.

In the interest of returning the book I must wind this up. It seems to me that a few paragraphs back I left the reader dangling, having referred to the PR man's rebellion against the monster he created, and then wandered off on related topics without revealing how the rebellion turned out.

Prolonged Suspense

There's a tense climax which is prolonged from page to page with the issue in doubt. The stuffed shirt uses all his power to break the man who built him up. And a couple of girls who figured in the plot now become highly important to the solution.

If I were writing this for a book jacket I'd say no more. But since my main interest is not to enrich Scribner's so much as to comment like heroes, I can safely divulge that virtue wins the day.

Which is as it should be. For we live in a de-bunking age and most of us enjoy learning the crude facts of life. We take a masochistic delight in seeing exposed the worst aspects of those influences that impinge on us, as for instance advertising, so well held up to ridicule in "The Hucksters" by Frederic Wakeman.

"The Build-Up Boys" is worthy of being mentioned in the same breath with "The Hucksters," both being slick writing jobs. In fact it wouldn't surprise me if some day it turned out that Jeremy Kirk and Frederic Wakeman are one and the same man. For there is a lot of similarity in viewpoint and style.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Here it is the last week of May and before we know it school will be out. According to the children, they need a rest from school—according to the teachers, they need a rest from teaching, and as all parents know—vacation is supposed to be a time of rest and fun for all. By the time September rolls around we'll see who really needs the rest. There will be lots of activities for the children this summer, including swimming instruction at the high school. The recreation department is also making plans for the youngsters so they at least will have a good time this vacation. For the rest of us it remains to be seen.

Two of the most popular members of the teen-age group celebrated their birthdays a week ago. Misses JOANNE & DIANE CASTELLANO of Santa Cruz avenue were the hostesses to a group of their friends in celebration of the event. Of course there was dancing, food and lots of fun for all. Many happy birthdays are wished the Castellano twins from all the folks.

How one's plans do change! MR. and MRS. ED EMERSON had planned to take the Daylight Limited to Los Angeles with their nephew Eddie to see him off for Lackland Air Force Base and then return the next day. Just received a card that instead of returning the following day as planned they stayed over and have gone on to Mexico where they are really being hosted. When they are coming home is a moot question but all the folks are glad to see them having such a good time as Ed has been on the sick list for a long time.

Items of Interest
JOSEPH LEWKOWITZ would like to take the opportunity through this column to thank all his many friends for their most loyal support during the last election. Joe, as he is known to so many, has been a resident of our town for the last fifteen years and in business for eight of those years at the top of the hill. Joe is the head of a grand family consisting of wife, DOLLY, and seven youngsters ranging in years from the oldest who has graduated from Jeff to the youngest who hasn't entered school yet. The others are scattered among the many schools in town so Joe should really have an insight into the needs of your children and mine. Besides being a businessman, Joe is a member of the Eagles, O.L.P.H. Men's Club, Holy Name Society, Service Station Owners Assn. and Musician's Union. Joe, like all men, has his hobby which is music. At the present time he is the head of the Daly City band called the GAY CHORDERS. They play at many of the town functions and he is donating his band's services to the youngsters of O.L.P.H. school for their graduating party. The other half of the Lewkowicz family, DOLLY, is just as active in civic affairs as Joe. She belongs to the PTA and Mother's club, and one and all are sure that Joe, with his knowledge of children and their needs, will be just the one to serve us well in the job to which he has been elected. Congratulations, Joe, from all your neighbors and mine.

How popular can you get? One way to find out is to be sick and away from your job for a few days. ART ALVISO, the traffic officer at Vista Grande and Mission street was away for a few days and what happens? Phone calls, no less, asking about him. Seems Art has more friends than he thought he had in the short time he has been on the job. All is well now—Art is now back on the job.

Daly City welcomed a new family to its midst last weekend. HAROLD "CULEY" ROBINSON and MRS. ROBINSON plus daughter SUSIE picked last weekend to move into their new home on Wildwood avenue in the Westlake section of Daly City. The Robinsons are originally both from San Francisco and lately Santa Rosa, but when they picked a place to really settle for good, like all sensible folks, they picked our town. Welcome to the Robinsons from all the folks.

Last Sunday saw one of the largest est turnouts for a breakfast anyone would want to see. It was the occasion of the Mother's and Son's Communion and breakfast held at OLPH church at the 8 a.m. Mass. The breakfast was cooked and served by the men of the Holy Name Society and for once the mothers could just sit and relax and let the men do the work.

Having a birthday last week was MISS LAUREN FEHL, daughter of MR. and MRS. DELL FEHL of Willis street. As is usual with youngsters she entertained many of her little friends on this occasion. Happy birthday to a nice little girl from all the folks.

Service men
It is always nice to hear from the fellows when they are ready to ship out, but what a disappointment when they call and tell you they will be out on a certain night and then fail to show up. You know just what has happened and sure enough the next day comes a letter saying that they are leaving that day and won't be able to make it for eighteen months. That is what happened when I heard from A 2/c DICK PHELPS of Amarillo Air Force Base who was spending what little time he had left in the States at Parks AFB. Dick is now on his way to Korea as a base maintenance electrician for the Air Force and all the best wishes of the folks go with him. He is just another in the seemingly never-ending line of boys who sail away to do their job for us.

Another young man whom I know only as "JACKSON" was on his way out to see me when he too had to leave suddenly without getting the chance to stop by. He too is an electrician formerly stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base and on his way to Korea. Eighteen months seems a long time but there will be letters from these boys to let me know just "what's happening" which I will pass on to you.

Heard from Seaman RICHARD E. NEGERBERG who is aboard the U.S.S. Hopewell, a destroyer in Uncle Sam's Navy last week. His news is much better. He is on his way home! Fact is he should be in port any day now after many months spent on duty in the Pacific waters and in and out of such ports as Japan, Korea, Okinawa, Yokohama and others too numerous to mention. It will most certainly be good to see Richie after so very long a time and what a welcome he will get from all his family and many friends.

Among those participating in the Daly City May Day Festival were BILL BRUSH JR., LEROY STORM and DALE DOOLEY who are members of Daly City's own National Guard unit—the 49th Division, 159th Battalion of the National Guard. There are times though when doing one's duty comes rather hard. Seems that the unit had to go to Fort Barry last weekend for rifle practice just when the Riordan High senior ball was being held and as duty comes before pleasure, many of the boys missed the ball. They are not "kids" anymore, folks, they are men doing their part for your country and mine. One and all are most proud of them as well they should be.

Reporting back for duty at Fort Ord after a two-week furlough was PVT. JAMES J. JASTRUMSKE. He has the life, though, as he has a coveted Class A pass which entitles him to all weekends off which he spends at home to the delight of his family and friends.

PFC. KENNY CALLISON, a nephew of one of the neighbors, has returned to duty with the U. S. Army after a thirty-day furlough. He left for San Diego where he will be assigned to further duty somewhere in the States for awhile at least.

The boys at Letterman had their usual gay time the other day when visited by Mesdames CLARA POKER, GRACE HILL and LYNN BOSKEY. The ladies spent the afternoon playing bingo with the fellows and spreading their usual brand of good cheer. One of them will be missed, though, as this was the last trip for Lynn as she has now turned over her chairmanship of this project in the Druids to her successor.

News and Views

A very surprised lady last week was MRS. IRENE SCALLY. She was the recipient of a stork shower on May 20 at the San Remo Restaurant where 47 of her friends and relatives gathered to enjoy a delicious chicken dinner. The tables were decorated in the approved motif of the occasion and the hostesses were Mesdames—CLARA SCALLY, PAT ARNAUDO, DOLLY LEWKOWITZ, DOLORES WARREN, HARRIET LIPITACK, MARGE BACKLUND and VIRGINIA TALEVREY. Many beautiful and most useful gifts were received for the future use of the baby to be.

MRS. FRANCES NENSTEIL and MRS. DOLORES WARREN were the surprised guests after the Eagle's Auxiliary whist on Tuesday, May 18. A group of friends gathered for refreshments and presented both Frances and Dolores with lovely gifts.

MR. and MRS. FRED LANE celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on May 13th. They were the guests of honor at a surprise dinner given for them at the home of MR. and MRS. AL ARNAUDO of Willis street. Congratulations from all the folks and best wishes for future happiness are wished the Lanes on this occasion.

Another family has joined the group known lately as "Measles, Inc." JUDY MARKGRAF, the seven-year-old of the family is now recuperating from them, brother DAVID, not to be outdone is hoping to get them and mother MARIE is hoping that he doesn't but is sure he will. Take it easy, Marie, by the time the kids are ready to go back to school it will be vacation time and they'll be home to stay for good.

SORENSEN HAS KEPT OUR COUNTY CLEAN!

Retain

District Attorney

KEITH C.

SORENSEN

Editorial:

The district attorney's office is the key to good government in San Mateo County. It is not the only important office by a long shot; but it is the most sensitive from the standpoint of a relatively "clean" county versus a community that may be "open"—first to abuse, then to corruption and, finally, to racketeering domination.

San Mateo County today enjoys a clean, heads up public service in its county government—particularly in the district attorney's office.

That is why we are supporting Keith Sorenson, the incumbent, for election.

He is a good attorney; he is young; he is experienced; and he has the record shows, moral courage and personal integrity of a high order. These are precisely the qualities required in a district attorney.

There is no need to replace this man or these qualities. He fits the job.

There is, on the contrary, a compelling public interest in retaining the proven competence and honesty of Mr. Sorenson in the position to which he was appointed.

There is no proof more persuasive than results and performance. In the case of Mr. Sorenson, the proof is conclusive.

WHAT'S DOING

Where safety is always in style

The man inside the strange garments (at right) put them on to show you the wide variety of safety devices we use today. Of course, it isn't likely a telephone man will need all this equipment on any single job. But whatever the job, telephone men have the safety devices and techniques they need. Making safety our style pays off for you. For we think a job must be safe to be good. And only good jobs can hold the capable people needed to bring you more service, dependable service, at lowest possible cost. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Save time—look up numbers before you call

You know, telephone numbers have a way of getting twisted when you rely on memory alone. So, to make sure you get right numbers the first time you call, look in the telephone book for those you're doubtful

BROADMOOR-WESTLAKE ATHLETES SPARKLE

Broadmoor and Westlake baseballers went on a winning spree last weekend as National League champ Broadmoor Pack 84 whipped St. Gabriel's Pack 108 of the American league, 14 to 3, and the National All-Stars edged the American circuit, 2 to 1.

Two Westlake competitors from Pack 248 turned in sterling performances in the All-Star contest Sunday.

Although limited to the maximum of four inning participation called for under league ruling, Chris Hanson and Peter Dunan both were instrumental in the National league win.

Hanson, in three innings at second base, made two put outs and one assist. The assist was made as Hanson was moving over rapidly behind first base on a ground ball, playing to the first basemen for the put out, one of the outstanding fielding plays of the game.

Hanson also had one base hit in two times at bat.

Dunan, working behind the plate, caught a steady game during the first three innings and in the final frame.

With the tying and winning runs on the bases for the Americans, the batter lofted a fly ball between first and home plate and Dunan snared it right next to the bench for the game's final out.

Honorary head coach of the Nationals was Bud Christman of Broadmoor Pack 84's championship team. Active coaches were Rugger Ardioza of Pack 43, a former New York Yankee and Pacific Coast league pitcher, assisted by Howard Schliemann of Pack 1, and John Noren of Pack 36.

WINNERS IN MERCED GOLF

Joe Marguleas, Herb Lane and Bob Naify paced the field Saturday and Sunday in the weekend sweepstakes at Lake Merced course.

Marguleas grossed 75 in Class A play Saturday, which gave him a net 64 for the low round with his handicap of nine.

Naify had a 81-15-66 in the Class B play Saturday to lead the field in that class.

Young Ball Players Needed For League

Ball players in the lower age groups were called upon this week to sign up for Daly City's summer baseball league.

Organizers and sponsors of the league met this week and response to the proposed summer program was described as "very good" by Lou Martin, who is in charge of the summer circuit.

Martin said youngsters in the 8 to 10, 10 to 12 and 13 to 15 year-old age group are still needed.

Managers and sponsors interested in entering the league should contact him immediately, Martin advised.

A total of four age groups will compete in the summer play. First game is tentatively scheduled for June 12.

DONLEY WINS SIXTH FOR CHANNEL CITIES

Chuck Donley, former Jeff High right hander, twirled Channel Cities to a 3-0 victory over Visalia Tuesday to give him a 6-1 record in "California league play."

Donley, who played ball here with Ed Cereghino, struck out nine and walked four in his first starting assignment.

Only hits off the former Jeff player came in the fifth and ninth innings, both triples.

Donley's win gave Channel Cities their second straight shut-out and fourth straight victory. The team now leads the California league by five games.

Transportation Meeting

ing to locate here, made it plain that his company would not come in if the muni remained.

"There would be barely enough patronage to operate one company and it would be suicide for two carriers to operate here," Lynn said.

The Peninsula company, Lynn explained, would be glad to work out some type of connection with the Westmoor line, another firm which seeks to operate here from the Broadmoor to Westlake areas.

15-cent Fare

A fare of 15 cents was proposed by Lynn for his company. "We can't operate under this price," he added.

"We couldn't offer any performance bond as has been suggested by some Daly City officials," Lynn pointed out. "Purchase of new equipment for the line would constitute our good faith in the agreement."

As to supplying transportation for nearly 120 children who ride the buses daily, Lynn said, "Naturally, this would be open to fair negotiations." At present the muni provides transportation for these youngsters at a five-cent fare.

Westmoor Offer

Appearing with the Westmoor company proposal for transportation was John Sullivan, attorney. He said the company would offer the following service at a 15-cent fare: Leave 87th and Maddux drive in Broadmoor, over to Dorchester, then to Southgate, up Alameda boulevard east to Junipero Serra boulevard, down Junipero Serra to West Portal and then back the same route.

The service would be express, he said, and the entire trip from Broadmoor to West Portal would consume 15 minutes.

Service would commence at 6 a.m. and wind up at 11 p.m. Buses to be used would be of the 41-passenger type.

Sullivan said that four buses would be maintained.

Three of the vehicles would be on at one time during peak hours, while one bus would be operated during off-peak hours, Sullivan pointed out.

Connection OK

He said his firm would be glad to work out a connection with the Peninsula Bus Lines.

He also stated that "we would be glad to work something out to supply transportation for the school kids."

Next, and most controversial proposal presented was that of jitney service, offered by J. Walsh.

The jitneys would traverse the following route, as outlined by Walsh: Leave Sickles avenue and Mission street to Hillside boulevard, up Hillside and along that street to Market street in Daly City. From there west to Mission, north on Mission to School street, west on School to Junipero Serra boulevard, north on Junipero Serra to Alameda boulevard, west to N. Mayfair and into the Westlake Shopping Center. On the return trip the jitneys would travel from Westlake up Alameda and Knowles avenue and to the "top of the Hill" area on Mission street.

15c Minimum
Fare would be a minimum of 15 cents, Walsh said, with a 20-cent levy for longer trips.

Walsh said that a line would also be run from the "top of the hill" direct to Westlake.

Service would be provided from 6:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. "If business warranted, we might extend these times," Walsh continued.

A $5000 performance bond guaranteeing six months service would be provided, Walsh told the audience.

Approximately 20 vehicles would be making the run at peak hours.

How the jitneys would be able to handle the school students was not proposed by Walsh. "That's a good question," Walsh answered when asked what he proposed to do about the situation.

Walsh asked that the muni remain on in Daly City for about six months if the jitneys started operating here. He said it would make the transition easier for Daly City riders.

Quiz Financial Structure
Several members of the audience were insistent on having Walsh outline the financial structure of the jitney group and explain just exactly who he represented.

The president of the jitney drivers association arose to point out that Walsh wasn't representing his group.

Peter Markovich, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, charged that Walsh was now misrepresenting himself and had done so in his previous meetings with the Chamber.

"You told us you represented the jitney association and now we find out you're not," Markovich stated. "We're just wasting time when you don't have the necessary facts," he added.

Walsh said, "I would have brought my attorney if I had known as much interest would be taken in this aspect of my proposal."

Chamber Statement

The Chamber president, Robert Hunter, read his organization's statement near the close of the meet. "We are not in favor of any form of transportation which would jeopardize the present system," it said.

Complete record of Friday's proceedings were taken down by tape recorder.

The council is expected to arrive at a decision on the transportation matter within the next week.

DON'T FORGET THE TOOLS

Before leaving on a motor trip, be sure your car carries its full complement of tools, advises the National Automobile Club.

GOVERNOR ENDS WHIRLWIND TOUR OF SAN MATEO COUNTY

Gov. Goodwin J. Knight left San Mateo county after an 11-city reception during "Shake Hands With Your Governor Day." Shoppers were astonished to find the Governor in their midst.

Gov. Knight, in a brief informal address at every stop, covered a wide range of subjects foremost in Peninsula thinking. He ridiculed depression talk; lauded growth and progress of the county; pointed out his recommendation to the legislature for $175,000,000 state aid for school building, which will appear on the November ballot, and reviewed liquor control reform and tougher narcotics control brought about during his administration.

Council Holds Brief Routine Meeting

The city council took care of several routine matters during Monday's 40 minute meeting.

The council voted to rescind the Brunswick street extension contract awarded to Meyer Rosenberg and call for new bids. The action was taken after the council heard reports that Rosenberg is not the holder of a valid contractor's license.

"Let's hurry this business up and get this extension completed as soon as possible; it has been the kiss of death to a lot of people," said Mayor Joseph Verducci.

Councilmen E. Dennis and D. Wilson reported on the activities and findings of the investigating committee. In their report the two stated that so far as they were able to learn, the rumor that a member of the Daly City police force had said that Police Chief Roland Petroch was to be dismissed was a false rumor.

Morgan Condemns "Campaign Cutting"

L. B. (Les) Morgan, candidate for supervisor, today challenged the recent budget cutting of the board of supervisors as "campaign cutting."

"They just slash away helterskelter at the budget," he said, "without any definite plan for future years." He advocated a clear-cut long-range budgetary plan for the county which would keep government economy along with preparation for future tax reduction.

Morgan pointed out that earlier this year a tax increase was predicted by the county manager, but as election time approached, the department budget was cut with abandon, and "without regard for need."

EXTENSIVE LAW EXPERIENCE-NEEDED BY DA CANDIDATES

Mayor F. Herschel Campbell of San Mateo, independent candidate for district attorney of San Mateo county, increased the tempo of his campaign activities this week.

Stressing the need for experience in all phases of the law in the office of district attorney, Campbell addressed the San Mateo County Council of Republican Women at the Council Chambers at the Menlo Park civic center Wednesday.

Later that day he participated in a candidate's tea at the home of Mrs. W. E. Jason, 198 Churchill drive, Woodside, and attended a political rally at Temple Beth Jacob at 1550 Alameda de las Pulgas, Redwood City.

Last night, Thursday, he spoke here before a neighborhood group at the home of Mrs. R. J. Martini, 172 West Brook avenue.

OLPH Midgets Tie For Championship

OLPH Midgets, registering double wins Saturday, cupped a piece of the CYO league championship and will meet St. Elizabeth's tomorrow (Saturday) at 10 a.m. in the first round of the playoff for the crown.

Third party in the three-way deadlock is Epiphany. Winner of tomorrow's contest at Glenn Park will face Epiphany for undisputed championship.

Tomorrow's game rates as a tight duel, Elizabeth's having topped OLPH recently, 3 to 2, for the local club's only loss this season.

Saturday morning the Midgets turned back St. Michael's, 6 to 3. Joe Millett went on the mound for the locals, allowing only three hits and an equal number of runs, walking four and striking out eight.

Pacing the bat attack were Skipper Crudo, Joe Millett and Beezie Krohn. Millett picked up two hits in three times at bat.

Crudo was also a vital asset on defense, making two saves at short stop that squelched St. Michael's scoring opportunities.

In the afternoon OLPH took Westlake into camp, scoring an even dozen runs against the West-lakers lone tally.

Larry Kane handled the West-lake squad with comparative ease, giving up only five hits and one run, walking two and striking out eight.

Ron Kalinin and Bill Whalen got five hits between them to lead the Midget batting roster.

A record crowd of 1500 youngsters are expected to participate in the summer swimming program at Jefferson High school starting June 21, coordinator Mike Orlich said today.

Eleven-day courses, or "campa-gns," will be started on June 21, July 6, July 19, August 2, and August 16, with the program ending August 28.

Fee for campaigns is $2, which includes swimming trunks. Youngsters must provide their own towels.

Instruction will be held in the morning from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m., with classes every half hour.

Sharon Boyle, Arleen Pool and Jim Galindo have been selected as instructors.

There is no age minimum for entrance in the program, but children must be at least 48 inches tall to participate.

The summer program is sponsored by the local high school, in conjunction with the American Red Cross.

TWO JUNIORS WILL BOLSTER '55 CLUB

Lowell Creighton
...mechanics, attitude

Two Jefferson high players were included in the 1954 ALL-NPAL baseball club, released yesterday (Thursday) by the Peninsula sports writers.

Pitcher Lowell Creighton, durable right-hander who recently went 21 innings in a league contest, was named to the mound staff of the mythical team, along with George Avery of Capuchino.

Selected to a utility position on the All-Star team was Al Figone, heavy hitting third basemen who was fourth in the league in batting with a .412.

Creighton won his spot with the lowest earned run average in the league, 1.4, beating out by a full run the closest competitor, Avery, who had a 2.5.

In pitching 51 innings, Creighton struck out 53 men, also tops in the league.

Despite his mediocre won-loss record, the 16-year-old Junior was a unanimous selection by the sportswriters.

The Daly City youngster wasn't counted on too heavily by coach Lou Martin at the beginning of the season, having worked mainly in relief in last year's campaign with the varsity.

However, as the season developed, Creighton became the No. 1 man on the Jeff hurling staff and, as the sportswriters saw it in naming the All-PAL team, the best pitcher of the year in the league.

Martin Praises

Martin sees Creighton as another Cereghino or Mossi. "He's got the proper mechanics and attitude to go all the way in pro ball," the Jeff mentor said.

As witnessed in his recent 21-inning stint against Burlingame, "He never lets up," Martin describes the youngster as a "base-ball nut."

Creighton's best asset is his control, but he's no slouch in the fast ball department.

Martin is counting heavily on the 180 pound 5' 10" chucker next year in his drive for the championship. "Next year it looks like we'll be ready," Martin speculated.

Martin makes no bones about it in saying that he'll build the team
